

Supersoaker

you never notice endings when you stop pretending my happy ever after is just an echo an echo of the laughter

i guess tomorrow finally came nothing ever stays the same there's no more bloody knees no more supersoaker i keep your secret deep a promise that i never broke

so long to our yesterdays

Like Moths

you can't please them all but you don't have to you chase your tail soon enough yer gonna taste blood

but who would want to?
the fire draws the moth circles soon enough yer wings will burn up

Siamese TV Lamp

the Siamese TV lamp is on and some show that i lost track of saturates the empty wall what does it mean to feel so small?

i sit up at night and wonder is there anything more to life? when the morning comes i feel uptight

the Siamese TV lamp is off and soon my eyes will close shut the orchid blooming in the dark its petals soak up all my thoughts i sit up at night in wonder feeling thankful that i'm alive

when the morning comes
i feel all right

take a deep breath
let it out
close your eyes
and settle down

Teenage Love Song

talk about the weekend everybody's creepin' out of the shade and down to the beaches please would you please me?
"everybody's easy" lookin' for a quick fix time of the season shootin' at the breeze with words i don't believe can't seem to get it right 'cause i'm shakin' at the knees rhyme without a reason means without a meaning you say that this is easy, but i don't know what you mean

now the moon is risin' it's pulling the tide in i feel the undertow deeper water we could dive in smiles full of shark teeth speeding up my heartbeat sand in my shoes kiss you in a car seat like castles in sand when a wave crashes in you're gone i'm here in the dark searching for sparks in your ashes

watch the sun come up and burn away the haze i can see too much of the wreckage that remains let it float away we'll chalk it up to luck, it's a brand new day

teenage love song honey

Couldn't Be Better

i've got problems with my health and lack self confidence i'm very hard on myself sometimes the way i act contradicts my intent i'm exhausted all the time from trying to be good it's always weighing on my mind if i could find a way to shut it off then i would

but it doesn't really matter
i couldn't be better
i been this way since i remember it doesn't really matter i couldn't be better, oh no it's all i know

maybe i'm the one who's trapped it's the picture staring back we've got the same eyes is there a part of him left in me still intact?

sun's out rain clouds cats and dogs are falling down don't get upset you can't control the weather in your head

Sleepwalk Daydream

i see those eyes but they're not for me i melt inside but she does not see she's with another guy havin' a good time it's plain to see he talks polite and they're doing alright just let 'em be on my way back home

i wish someone was staring back at me they say the grass is green on the other side the deep blue sea is she out there, somewhere out there?

waiting for me
